

EMPIRE'S OTHER OTHER: Thinking Intersectionally in Transnational Contexts

Abendvortrag mit
Prof.in Dr. Nirmala Erevelles
(University of Alabama)

Mittwoch / 21. Juni 2017 / 17:45 – 19:15

Critical disability studies/crip theory continues to privilege the white bourgeois dis/abled subject. As a result, it fails to account for its own problematic geopolitical location in the context of Empire and its oppressive relationships with its Other others. Disrupting this normalization of violence necessitates the simultaneous disruption of ableism and white heteronormative supremacy.

Moderation: Prof.in Dr. Anne Waldschmidt

Veranstaltet von:

PD Dr. Urte Helduser (Universität zu Köln)

Sarah Karim, MA (Universität zu Köln)

Prof.in Dr. Anne Waldschmidt (Universität zu Köln)

Ort: Neuer Senatssaal, Hauptgebäude der Universität zu Köln

weitere Informationen unter:

idis.uni-koeln.de/inter